Gala Christmas Party For Juniors Children

Christmas magic filled the Torrance Woman's club at 1422 Engracia Ave. last Sunday evening from 4 until 7 o'clock when the Torrance Junior Woman's club staged its annual Christmas party for the children of members. Mrs. Robert Williams served as chairman of this annual event.

Tom Sexton, talented magician, held the children spellbound with a display of magic tricks of all sorts. Community singing of all the well-loved

Christmas carols was a party highlight.

Climaxing the festive party was the visit from Santa Claus. Cookies and punch were served by club members.

Mrs. Richard Dorothy served as chairman of decorations. She prepared scenes showing how the animals in the forest celebrate Christmas which was a delight for the children. On display were art pieces made by the children.

B&PW Christmas Party Monday

Torrance Business and Professional Woman's club will hold its annual Christmas party on Monday evening, Dec. 19, at Eddie's restaurant, Normandie and Redondo Blvd. At 6:30 p.m. there will be a punch bowl and a Christmas buffet. This will be followed by a gift exchange around a decorated tree.

Mrs. Clara Connor and Mrs. Hilda Monroe are in charge of the party. Lolita Packard is a new member of the club.

Club Party

Mrs. Paul Loranger entertained her bridge club at its annual Christmas party last Thursday evening at her home, 1448 Post Ave. Dinner was served at a beautifully appointed table centered by a Christmas arrangement.

Bridge was played during the after-dinner hours.

Mrs. Loranger's guests were Mmes. John Melville, Mel Miller, Dean Sears, W. C. Boswell, M. A. Bauman, Delbert Thomson and Eugene Cook.

Club Enjoys Christmas Program

"The Spirit of Christmas" was the theme for the Torrance Woman's Club Dec. 7 meeting held at the clubhouse on Wednesday. Mrs. W. L. Lucas opened the program with a Christmas story about a mid-western boy. Mrs. Alma Smith, program chairman, introduced Rev. Hugh R. Percy, the speaker for the day. Father Percy has completed over 25 years in the ministry. After receiving his degree from St. John's College in Winnipeg, he went as a missionary to the Indians and trappers of Northern Canada. During World War II, he served as a chaplain in the Canadian Army. Five years ago he came to Torrance as rector of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church. During his telling of the old, old story of Christmas on Wednesday afternoon, he pointed out the fact that this season brought a greater appreciation of goodness, truth, and beauty.

Following the speaker, the 50 voice Girls Glee Club from Bishop Montgomery High School presented an inspiring program of Christmas music. This talented and excellently trained group was led by Sister Frances Rita. On their program were the following selections: "Hark the Herald Angels Sing," "Adeste Fidelis," "God Bless You Merry Gentlemen," "Silent Night," "Twelve Days of Christmas," "Shepherds Pipes," "A Babe in the Manger," "Jesus, Your King is Born," "Drummer Boy," and as an encore "Carol of the Bells."

A catered luncheon was served at 12:30 p.m. with Mrs. J. W. Post and Mrs. C. T. Rippey greeting members and guests as they arrived. A business meeting was conducted at 1:30 p.m. with Mrs. Roy Apey, president, presiding. Mrs. Pat Bennett was introduced as a new member. Mrs. Lee Clotworthy, Junior President, and Mrs. D. E. Moore, Junior-Senior director, were guests of the Club.

The next meeting of the club will be a potluck luncheon and Christmas party on Dec. 21.

Vel-De-Nez Club Yule Party Dec. 18

mean "You are dear to me" or anything like that.

The "Love, Sue" was too friendly. Sign off with "Buena suerte" and let him look it up.

Dear Ann Landers: My husband and I have been married four years and are very happy. He has three children by a former marriage and pays a whopping support bill.

I didn't meet Wendell until after he was divorced so his ex-wife can't accuse me of breaking up her marriage. When Wendell and I tried to go together she tried to get him to remarry her but it didn't work. Last year she gave up and married a mediocre guy who promptly lost his job.

The ex-wife called Wendell a few months ago, and said the children were getting nervous and insecure because their step-father was unemployed. Could he put the guy to work? Wendell agreed and now they are in our hair but good. They drop over frequently "to talk business" and the ex looks at Wendell in a way I don't like. Any advice? — N.W.

Dear N.W.: It was good of Wendell to get the guy a job. His mistake, however, was employing the fellow himself.

You are justified in resenting the woman's presence in your home. Tell your husband he must find his ex's husband a job elsewhere. This set-up is unhealthy.

Are your parents too strict? You can benefit from the experiences of thousands of teenagers if you write for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "How To Live With Your Parents," enclosing with your request 25 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-address envelope.

Mr. Mrs. Vernon D. Hall On Northern Honeymoon

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Dale Hall, who were married in an 8 o'clock ceremony at the Torrance Church of God on Saturday evening, are honeymooning this week in San Francisco. Mrs. Hall is the former Charlotte Lajeau Ball, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford E. Ball, 23821 Ward St., Torrance. Mrs. W. W. Hall of Imperial, Calif., is the mother of the bridegroom.

The bride came to the altar on the arm of her father. She was gown in a rose patterned brocade fashioned with a princess front panel. The skirt fullness was caught by two large puffs in the back over a chapel train. A sheer sequin embroidered band encircled the neckline. Her illusion veil cascaded from a pearl crown and she carried a bouquet of white orchids and roses.

Miss Linda Mae Ball was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Misses Barbara Bohannon and Virginia Klace. All were gown in apricot chiffon over taffets. Their bouquets were of apricot carnations.

Belinda Easley, in a floor length apricot chiffon, was the flower girl and Ricky Dodos carried the rings.

Ted Stracener stood as best man and the 250 guests were seated by Chuck Nolley and Donny Ragland.

Mrs. George Bloome played the wedding marches and accompanied Carol Nolley, soloist.

Jerry and Sharon Pearson lighted the candles for the service conducted by the Rev. George Broome.

A reception was held at the
